

THE BOTTOM m LINE

Issue 71 – October/November 2011

CV and interview skills:

applying for a job with your life purpose in mind

On 24 August 2011, Dineshrie Pillay ACMA, CA (SA) and life coach gave attendees tips and techniques on linking their purpose in life to their careers, preparing CVs to win an interview and performing well during job interviews. This workshop, organised by the Gauteng branch committee and held in Midrand, was described by attendees as informative, relevant and useful for securing a fulfilling job.

From left to right: Sarah Markey ACMA, Dineshrie Pillay ACMA and CIMA student Edna Kamanga.

Taxation update

South Africans have been faced with a mass of new tax legislation in recent years. To assist its members and students to keep up with these developments the CIMA Gauteng branch committee organised a half day Taxation update seminar in Johannesburg on 20 September 2011. Delegates were given an overview of the latest amendments to tax legislation by Wessel Smit CA (SA) an independent tax consultant who was a senior tax lecturer at the University of the Free State.

From left to right: Deon Roux ACMA, Wessel Smit, Amanda Roux ACMA and Dineshrie Pillay ACMA.